Dear Executives At This Company:

I was referred to this company because of my incredible talent. You are in need of prestigious voice work, and I am sure that you may be looking for me, as many others have praised my talent.

I am a master at programming and coding. My grade school teachers sing praises about me, notably for being able to figure out what to do to solve a problem or create something without the need for help.

I hope that I can bequeath my skillset to empower your company. You deserve an employee that is unique and crafty, and these are the talents I possess that can uplift your company.

Sincerely,

Cameron Gruden

Thanks!
